On Monday, March 25th, 2019, Jim Mead the insurance adjustor touched base to determine a time when an engineer can meet him at Public Works to determine a further possible cause of loss. If it is indeed not a covered loss and due to poor construction, can we look to the contractor or building inspector? The Board asked Bates and Niggemann to find out the statute of limitations. Resolution No. 2019-04

Residential Anti-Displacement and Relocation Assistance Plan

WISCONSIN RESIDENTIAL ANTIDISPLACEMENT AND RELOCATION ASSISTANCE PLAN FOR CDBG PROGRAMS

This Residential Anti-Displacement and Relocation Assistance Plan (RARAP) is prepared by the Village of Colfax in accordance with the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as amended; and HUD regulations at 24 CFR 42.325 and is applicable to our CDBG¹ projects.

Minimize Displacement

Consistent with the goals and objectives of activities assisted under the Act, the Village of Colfax will take the following steps to minimize the direct and indirect displacement of persons from their homes:

- Coordinate code enforcement with rehabilitation and housing assistance programs.
- Evaluate housing codes and rehabilitation standards in reinvestment areas to prevent undue financial burden on established owners and tenants.
- Stage rehabilitation of apartment units to allow tenants to remain in the building/complex during and after the rehabilitation, working with empty units first.
- Arrange for facilities to house persons who must be relocated temporarily during rehabilitation.
- Adopt policies to identify and mitigate displacement resulting from intensive public investment in neighborhoods.
- Adopt policies which provide reasonable protections for tenants faced with conversion to a condominium or cooperative.
- Adopt tax assessment policies, such as deferred tax payment plans, to reduce impact of increasing property tax assessments on lower income owner-occupants or tenants in revitalizing areas.
- Establish counseling centers to provide homeowners and tenants with information on assistance available to help them remain in their neighborhood in the face of revitalization pressures.

¹ CDBG programs include: Entitlement Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Program, State CDBG Program, CDBG Small Cities Program, Section 108 Loan Guarantee Program, CDBG Special Purpose Grants Program, and the Neighborhood Stabilization Program (NSP).

- Where feasible, give priority to rehabilitation of housing, as opposed to demolition, to avoid displacement.
- If feasible, demolish or convert only dwelling units that are not occupied or vacant occupiable dwelling units (especially those units which are "lower-income dwelling units" as defined in 24 CFR 42.305).
- Target only those properties deemed essential to the need or success of the project.

Relocation Assistance to Displaced Persons

The Village of Colfax will provide relocation assistance for lower-income tenants who, in connection with an activity assisted under the CDBG Program, move permanently or move personal property from real property as a direct result of the demolition of any dwelling unit or the conversion of a lower-income dwelling unit in accordance with the requirements of 24 CFR 42.350. A displaced person who is not a lower-income tenant, will be provided relocation assistance in accordance with the Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act of 1970, as amended, and implementing regulations at 49 CFR Part 24.

One-for-One Replacement of Lower-Income Dwelling Units

The Village of Colfax will replace all occupied and vacant occupiable lower-income dwelling units demolished or converted to a use other than lower-income housing in connection with a project assisted with funds provided under the CDBG Program in accordance with 24 CFR 42.375.

Before entering into a contract committing the Village of Colfax to provide funds for a project that will directly result in demolition or conversion of lower-income dwelling units, the Village of Colfax will make public by publication in the Colfax Messenger and submit to WI Department of Administration, Division of Energy, Housing and Community Resources Administration the following information in writing:

1. A description of the proposed assisted project;
2. The address, number of bedrooms, and location on a map of lower-income dwelling units that will be demolished or converted to a use other than as lower-income dwelling units as a result of an assisted project;
3. A time schedule for the commencement and completion of the demolition or conversion;
4. To the extent known, the address, number of lower-income dwelling units by size (number of bedrooms) and location on a map of the replacement lower-income housing that has been or will be provided. NOTE: See also 24 CFR 42.375(d).
5. The source of funding and a time schedule for the provision of the replacement dwelling units;
6. The basis for concluding that each replacement dwelling unit will remain a lower-income dwelling unit for at least 10 years from the date of initial occupancy; and

7. Information demonstrating that any proposed replacement of lower-income dwelling units with smaller dwelling units (e.g., a 2-bedroom unit with two 1-bedroom unit), or any proposed replacement of efficiency or single-room occupancy (SRO) units with units of a different size, is appropriate and consistent with the housing needs and priorities identified in the HUD-approved Consolidated Plan and 24 CFR 42.375(b).

To the extent that the specific location of the replacement dwelling units and other data in items 4 through 7 are not available at the time of the general submission, the Village of Colfax will identify the general location of such dwelling units on a map and complete the disclosure and submission requirements as soon as the specific data is available.

Replacement not Required Based on Unit Availability

Under 24 CFR 42.375(d), the Village of Colfax may submit a request to HUD (or to the State, if funded by the State) for a determination that the one-for-one replacement requirement does not apply based on objective data that there is an adequate supply of vacant lower-income dwelling units in standard condition available on a non-discriminatory basis within the area.

Morgan & Parmley LTD No. 2019-143

Dear Jim:

Thank you for requesting a building inspection and it was nice to meet you today on site.

As requested, I inspected the above referenced building to determine why the steel ceiling panels were coming down. During the inspection I talked with Rand Bates, Director of Public Works. Rand was in the building during the time of the failure and was able to video a portion of the failure on his phone. Rand said he was in his office when he heard a popping noise, looked out and saw the ceiling panels begin to fall from the ceiling. The failure was progressive, starting near the south wall and going to the east and west and also toward the north. The failure was stopped when Rand drove the end loader near the center of the failure area and propped up the ceiling using a man basket.

The end loader is shown holding up the steel liner panels. If the end loader were moved the ceiling would continue to collapse. The ceiling is only temporarily stabilized and the ceiling support system has little or no safety factor available to stop the failure mode.

The above photograph shows one of the 2" x 4" furring strips to which the steel ceiling panels are nailed. The weight of the insulation plus the weight of the steel ceiling panels plus the weight of any attached HVAC system is carried by the 2" x 4" furring strips into the bottom chord of each truss by two nails. As shown, the two nails have pulled out of the bottom chord of the truss. This "pull out" is repeated at the other connections. The above photograph shows that the ceiling panel system failed at the points of connection of the furring strips to the trusses.

The attic investigation was limited to the two bays adjacent to the attic access opening. Construction appears to be consistent in these two bays and these limited observations are assumed to be consistent through the remainder of the building.

In conclusion, the ceiling collapse occurred as a result of the failed furring strip to truss connections. The allowable load capacity of the nails was exceeded which caused the nails to pull out of the bottom chord of the truss. Please note that the ceiling system continues to remain at a point of collapse and must be adequately shored to prevent further damage or injury.

The findings of this report are based upon information provided to me by others and upon salient observations. My opinion is only applicable to the specific conclusions drawn by this report and is provided to MPIC for their exclusive use. Thank you for letting me serve you. If you have any questions or wish for further documentation to support my conclusion, please call.

Sincerely,

Larry Gotham, P.E.

The building is a post frame structure that is approximately 50' x 90' and was constructed in 1999 as a cold storage unit. The Village purchased the building from the original owner and then remodeled it in 2007. During the remodeling phase the occupancy was changed from a cold storage warehouse to a heated S2-Garage. The interior of the building was lined with steel panels, insulated and an HVAC system installed. The 2007 construction plans show the interior as 29 gage metal liner panels with 2" x 4" ceiling furring strips placed 2' on center fastened to existing trusses that were 6' on center. The building is adjacent to the railroad tracks.

During inspection it was found that 2" x 4" furring strips, 2' on center, are nailed to the bottom of the two ply trusses using two pneumatic nails per connection (some connections were observed with three nails). The pneumatic nails appear to be coated 0.131" x 3-1/4" nails. The 29 gage steel panels have ribs 9" on center and are nailed to the 2" x 4" furring strips with rows of nails placed every 4' (it appears that only half of the furring strips are being used). The steel ceiling panels are fastened to the furring strips using coated, rubber gasketed, ring shank 0.148 x 2.5" nails; one nail placed in each rib (9" on center). There is approximately 16" of blown fiberglass insulation over the steel panels and the insulation does not appear to have any moisture present. In addition to the dead load of the steel panels, insulation, and furring strips, HVAC equipment and ductwork appear to be mounted to the steel panel system and arranged to be in line with the row of steel panel fasteners.

This photo was taken in the attic and shows that: the ceiling has collapsed about 3' at this location; the steel ceiling panels were not nailed to the furring strips that remain connected to the bottom chord of the truss; the depth of insulation is about 16"; separate hangers for ductwork, other than connection through the steel panel into the furring strip, are not evident.
